

A.J.

Name: AJ
Sex: Female
Age: Approx 6-7 months
Breed: Mixed Breed

AJ (who scored her name because she is an Absolute Joy) came from another regional pound. She is only a puppy and has lots of puppy tendencies like chewing up her bedding when she can. But that doesn't change her gorgeous personality. She has been with me now for a couple of weeks and every time I look at that face and those eyes I melt, even if she has chewed her bed or nipped me playfully on the behind. She is great with other dogs and just loves playing with them but if they get a bit boisterous she wants to come inside to get away. She is great inside, crate trained and appears to be housetrained.

She hasn't been in the car much and hasn't done a lot of off lead work but she is on property and she comes back when called although not immediately. She loves her walks too and is pretty good on the lead. I think this young girl would be great with another dog and someone that is going to make her part of the family, not just to be left in the back yard to amuse her own self; otherwise she could be a bit naughty.

AJ is of mixed breed and about 18kgs.
