

Ben

Name: Ben

Sex: Male

Age: Approx 3 years

Breed: Mixed Breed

Ben has been patiently waiting in foster care for his forever home. He is looking for his new best friends - this guy is one loyal dog. Ben is house trained and loves the water. A hose, a river, and water he is there. Loves to play and looooooves attention (so much so that he will sit and whinge at you to pat him). Ben is great with everyone he meets when he is out and about, but he does seem to want to protect his 'foster mum' when they are at home. Did we mention his loyalty?

He is good on the lead and has been taking down to the river for walks and just loves swimming and chasing the ducks. Ben is a gentle dog but he does resource guard so is probably best as an only dog. He will socialise with other dogs but when there is a bone around or food, it's his and he isn't about to share. We would like Ben to go to a couple with either no children or older children and no other dogs, where he can be inside and outside and just let allowed to be himself. He will make and loyal friend and great companion.
