

Conan

Name: Conan
Sex: Male
Age: Approx 18 months
Breed: Bull Arab x Great Dane

Hi there, My name is Conan and I am a handsome fellow don't you think, I have been in rescue for a while now although I did go to a new home but they had a cat and I really don't like cats. They also had chickens which I would love to have played with but I wasn't allowed. The also had small kids and all I did was want to play with them too but they were just a bit small for me.

I am a super friendly boy and just love life and running and playing with other dogs and playing with people too. If you have a small back yard don't consider me because in the mornings I love to do laps of the yard. If you work full time I really need a play mate, big or small doesn't really matter but someone that can play with me and won't get sookie if play gets a bit rough.

At the moment I am on a farm and the best part is when I am allowed out with my foster mum to run around the paddocks. I don't take my eyes off her in case she leaves me behind but she never does as she keeps an eye on me too.

If she can't see me, when she calls I come straight back.

I see the horses and cow wondering around but they aren't a threat to me so I don't bother with them. I love to go for rides in the car and see new things and I like water but only to get my feet wet. I never did have swimming lessons but one day I might learn to swim.

My friend that I go out with loves to swim so she retrieves the sticks or balls and I have fun taking them off her when she comes back to the shallow water. One of my other foster buddies is a little staffy pup and he and I chase each other all the time.

There is a video on our facebook page of us playing.
