

Deisal

Name: Deisal
Sex: Male
Age: 10 months
Breed: Staffy x

This is Deisal

He was surrendered because he apparently chewed everything. He has been in care now for a little while now and has time spent with him.

He has been allowed inside and been allowed to be a part of the family and has proved to be a delightful little boy.

He hasn't chewed anything, he is house trained, he doesn't bark much and he is good inside. He just needs to be a part of family life and not stuck out the back yard to fend for himself.

He would suit pretty much any family, with or without kids, that is prepared to make him part of their life.

He is in foster with another dog and is great with her.

Deisal is great with any dog and loves people.

Adoption Fee: $350
