

Deisal

Name: Deisal
Sex: Male
Age: Approx 18 months
Breed: Large Mixed Breed

Deisal came with the name so we kept it. He is about 18mths old and is a large mix breed of 40kgs, and the biggest sook of all time. When he first came into care he was so timid you couldn't get a collar on him but since then he has come out of his shell and is just a gentle giant. He is fantastic and playful with other dogs, he is great in the car, he walks exceptionally well on the lead, even from the first day I took him out. He is house trained and crate trained, and he is pretty good off lead. Give him a treat and he is so gentle when he takes it. He loves his food, doesn't bark much and loves being inside. Just a great dog but needs to be an inside dog as well as outside.

I haven't had him around cats or children so not sure about them but I would recommend him to a home either property or large back yard, where he will have another dog to play with if the family are not home during the day, where he will get regular walks and socialisation, and he must be allowed inside.

He doesn't jump fences either so would be good on property
