Name: Delta
Sex: Female
Age: Approx 12 months
Breed: German Shorthaired Pointer Mix

Delta is learning how to be more confidence and that 'girls just wanna have fun'. Delta came into care timid and unsure of humans, but has since learnt how to play games like tug-a-war and chasee. She loves ever other dog she meets even the mean ones she just wants them to be friends with her. She will roll over on her back and just try to look cute to get their attention.

She takes cue from foster siblings on how to act and relies on other dogs showing her the rope. Does your dog need a friend to play chasee or tug-a-war with Delta could be their best friend. Don't worry if your dog gets tired and needs a rest delta find a toy and amuse herself.

Delta found out that pats and food come from family members so their worthy of her attention. She enjoys spending time with her family so someone home often would suit her best. She will chase a toy but doesn't always bring it back. She love having someone outside with her and will follow you around to check out what you're up to. She been around children and loves them, but sometime is a little clumsy with where her long legs are when out playing so older children would be better for her.

Delta has done some training and knows how to sit, drop and stay and is working on coming back to her name. She is house trained know where her bed and toys are. Delta has also been crate trained and enjoys I warm crate to curl up in at night.

Delta can walk perfectly on lead and when running will put the lead in her mouth while running beside you. She loves going for her walks and is very inquisitive with what been happening around the block during the day.

Delta loves her shell pool and will find any water to flop in after running around. She been down to the river and bounds around in the water all on her own she like swimming out to a person and if they bob down in the water she will try to sit on their lap.

Delta has been living with a big and small dog and learnt how to play with each. Sometimes she lies on her back so the Corgie can play with her easier. She has also been living with 4 cats she quickly learnt that when a cat hiss to walk away from them and not return but those who don't hiss are friendly and will try to play with them by lying down and pawing near them, she very gentle with them.

If you looking for a fun loving dog, who will play with you and be your dog's pal then deltas your girl.
