

Ferdie

Name: Ferdie

Sex: Male

Age: Approx 5 years

Breed: Staffy

Ferdie was surrendered a few months ago because his owners couldn't give him what he needed. He is an absolute gem of a dog, very quiet, super loyal, friendly, gentle, and great with other dogs and kids, just a beautiful boy.

He was in care for a while but he suffered separation anxiety so he was moved to another carer and so far he has been excellent.

He needs someone that has a regular routine and is home most of the time. He is happy to be left at home for a couple of hours as long as he is secure in the fact that you are coming home. He is so excited to greet you when you do come home.

He has other dogs around him but he is definitely a people dog even though he is great with them all, puppies included. He is happy to be crated at night if need be but I am sure he would be happy to be a bed bug too.

I have found him delightful to care for but he would be perfectly happy in the right home. Where ever you go, he right beside you. He loves the car and would sit in it all day.

Adoption Fee: $350
