

Hallum

Name: Hallum
Sex: Male
Age: 14 weeks
Breed: Boxer x Heeler

Hallum is the result of backyard breeding where they couldn't "get rid of" all the pups. This little boy is absolutely delightful and the easiest pup I have had in a long time. He spent most of his short life outside so when he came into foster care he realised how good it is inside and hates going outside. He was extremely quiet when he first came but is slowly coming out of his shell and starting to interact with the other dogs and learning what it's like to be part of a family.

He rarely barks, he crates and hasn't made a mess yet although he isn't house trained. He is very loyal and follows me around everywhere. I have taken him for walks on lead and ended up taking it off because he didn't leave my side... wherever you are he is at your feet and he travels well in the car. As long as he is with you he is happy but he is happy a fair bit of the time too. He must go to a home where he is inside and someone is home a lot of the time or has another dog that he can socialise with.

Adoption Fee: $350
