

Lady

Name: Lady

Sex: Female

Age: Approx 10-12 months

Breed: Mixed Breed

This girl is a lady by name and a lady by nature. She is so sweet and so gentle and so so submissive. She is possibly a stag x but she is about the size of a large whippet. She constantly wags not only the tail but her whole body.

She sleeps inside and night and has had the odd accident. Lady is crate trained, good on the lead, good in the car but hasn't had a lot of work off lead.

She is quite playful but she is also a bit of a couch potato. I haven't even heard her bark as yet, she loves to come inside so wherever she goes she will need to be an inside girl and gets lots of cuddles.

Lady is just a beautiful girl and would recommend her to a fairly quiet home where she can gain some confidence, where she will get regular walks, will be allowed inside and will get lots of love.

I wouldn't recommend her to a home that has birds/ducks/chooks as she shows quite a lot on interest when she sees them.

Adoption Fee: $350
