

Narkye

Name: Narkye

Sex: Female

Age: Approx 11 months

Breed: Mixed Breed

Narkye is a beautiful girl without a mean bone in her body. She is very timid, and unsure. But she has been in care for a few weeks, and her carer has done a great job of building her confidence.

Narkye is very shy when meeting new people, but once she is comfortable with you, she completely relaxes and just wants to please you. She is fantastic with other dogs of all sizes, and would do better in a home where she had another dog as a play mate. Narkye is very smart - and really just wants to please, and in a very short time has learned all her basic manners, like sit, wait and coming to her name. She has not spent much time inside, but has not had any accidents while she has been inside.

Narkye would suit almost any home providing her new owner was patient with her, due how timid she is. But she is a very loyal girl who just wants to please, and with a little bit more confidence building and time, she is going to be an amazing family member.

Adoption Fee: $350
