

Presto

Name: Presto
Sex: Male
Age: Approx 18 months
Breed: Mixed Breed

My name is Presto, but I answer to anything!! If you are looking for a puppy but don't want the hassle of having to house train, then I am the dog for you. I am only 18 months old, so am fully grown but I still have the fun puppy antics that you will adore.

I can sit and wait on command, I am great walking on a lead (I know not to pull), I am great travelling in the car and I get along well with other dogs. Did I mention that I am house trained? Yep, no accidents inside for me!!

I love running around the backyard, and if there is water then I am in it, sticking my head right in it, as well as my legs and anything else that I can fit!! I love splashing around in the water bowl then running off the drips as fast as I can!

So, if you are looking for a dog that is still young enough to have fun with, but that you don't have to do much training with, then I might be the one for you! If you are, I promise I will love you forever and lick you to death! I might even sleep with you (or on top of you.....) because I just want to be close to my human.

Adoption Fee: $350
