

Roxy

Name: Roxy
Sex: Female
Age: Approx 12 years
Breed: Maltese

Roxy gets along great with all other dogs we've come across. At the dog park she was happily off-lead, socialising with all types of dogs with ease, without straying too far. She is great on the lead/harness & loves walking. Otherwise, she is a happy, relaxed dog. She loves to be close to you, follows you around & enjoys being with other dogs. She is house-trained & had no issues with my doggy door after one lesson.

She is lovely & fluffy & easy to have around. She can bark but doesn't tend too much, she's a quiet companion. I've been told that Roxy is about 12 years old. It is surprising as she is playful & looks happy & young. Her teeth give her age away but have no issues eating whatever we give her. I haven't tested her on cats, chickens or children, but she has been relaxed with other people, dogs & birds so far, so I wouldn't see there to be an issue.

Adoption Fee: $350
