

Theo

Name: Theo

Sex: Male

Age: 7 years

Breed: Mastiff x Shepherd

This beautiful boy was abandoned in the pound. No one came to collect him which is heartbreaking because he is just a gem. He is in foster care at the moment with another dog, and kids and they all love him. He is just "the best dog". He is totally house trained, doesn't wander off (he is on property), he is quite playful with the other dog and when he has had enough of playing he will give a bit of warning and that's it. He goes off and has a rest.

He loves the car. His name was Dozer which he does know but we gave him a new name with his new life and called him Theo. He does have a problem with one of his back legs/hip and he was checked out by the vets who seem to think it has been a long term condition and he isn't in pain, so the best thing to do is just to leave things alone.

He is an absolute gentleman and just loves to be near where the action is even if he just lies there and you step over him, he is happy to be just there.

We have had him desexed and vaccinated but we are just asking for a donation for this boy to cover a little of the vet work. We just want him to go to someone that is going to give him a loving caring forever home.

Adoption Fee: $TBA
