

Zimba

Name: Zimba
Sex: Female
Age: Approx 4 years
Breed: Sheltie x

Zimba is a dog that has a personality of her own. She has been a bit snappy at times but just recently she had 3 grass seeds taken out of her foot and has been a lot better since then. She is pretty good with dogs but would really be better as an only dog as she can get a bit dominant at times.

She loves cuddles, likes a brush on her terms, walks well on a lead and is quite playful. Her recall is quite good.

Zimba is very responsive to male voices. She has had some training eg sits, rolls over, won't go out the gate unless she is enticed or on the lead.

Loves going in the car and loves coming inside. She will play fetch but doesn't bring it back she likes you to chase her for it. Zimba eats mostly everything not sure on giving her a bath as we haven't done that. She seems to like cats, her reaction was I just want to play, she also likes to herd things she has a very loud bark.

She will let you know if there is a stranger but once they have given her a pat it's ok. Thinking Zimba would be ideal for someone that hasn't got other pets maybe semi-retired that could spend one on one time with her. She would make a beautiful companion for the right person.

Adoption Fee: $350
