

Zulu

Name: Zulu
Sex: Male
Age: Approx 18 months
Breed: Boxer x Staffy

We were asked to take this boy urgently as he was to be put to sleep the next day. We agreed to take him and the day before he was to come to us he chewed the top of his tale so needed surgery, hence he has a short tale but it doesn't stop him from constantly wagging it. He is a high energy dog and when around other dogs he is playful and bouncy and loves to run but on his own he likes to be inside with you.

He doesn't jump fences or dig holes and when he runs around the back yard he is like a rabbit, all four feet leave the group and he bounds. He is almost crate trained and not quite house trained and at the moment am working on getting some weight on him as he was quite thin and his coat was pretty rough.

He has basic training and walks well on the lead. He is fine around children but not sure about cats. His name is Zulu and about 18mths old. Boxer x (blue) Staffy

Adoption Fee: $350
